Dear Parents/Carers and Children,

It has been another wonderful week in Canute class. We have enjoyed reading the story 'How to be a Viking' and have acted out the part of 'Stoick the Vast'. All the children have found him to be a giant Viking that laughs really loud and stomps his feet! We have done some fantastic work on our number bonds to 10. The children are getting much more confident with these now. In Science we have begun our topic 'my body' and sang 'head, shoulders, knees and toes' and played 'Simon says'. We have played together very well and have been trying very hard, keep it up Canute class! Worker of the week this week goes to Logan for his super effort while Homeworker of the week goes to Lewys for his super Thor hammer charm and delicious Viking bread.
