The pupils have been practising hard for the Christmas play- the year 3 pupils will be narrating while the rest of Tregeagle class will be carol singers and will support Canute with their acting out of the Christmas story. On Thursday, the whole school made lanterns which will be used in the Lantern Parade at the Fowey Christmas markets as well as in the Christmas performance- they will look lovely glowing in the dark church. In forest school, the pupils have been making lots of Christmas decorations and using tools and natural resources to make their creations from.
