This week

Dear parents/carers and children,

We kicked off our Carn Glaze creative project on Wednesday afternoon. Roger Luxton and Sarah Waller, music and dance specialist respectively came and worked with Tregeagle class. The pupils had a super afternoon working on a piece of dance and a Cornish shanty (see more information below).

We've been working really hard in maths on our times tables while in English we've enjoyed writing Victorian playscripts.

We are continuing with our football sessions in PE as a number of them were postponed last half term- I have been so impressed by the effort, skills and team work they've shown during both the skills sessions and mini-games.

Coming up...

Who looks after your child?

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday– Mr Smith

Thursday – Miss Edwards

Yr 5 and 6 maths sessions Monday-Friday– Mr Monks

Mrs Woollaston and Miss Carroll will be supporting the class every day

A cave of stories (at Carnglaze Caverns)

As mentioned in the previous newsletter, we will be working with the BridgeMat creative team (made up of a children's author, an artist and dance/music specialists) alongside 3 other schools to produce a performance for parents at Carn Glaze Caverns.

We have decided to base our work around the Jane Slade and a 19th century diary entry of a cobbler leaving Polruan to set up life in the new world. We started some of the work this week and next week we will be working on music, dance, art and creative writing work. I have been in contact with Sean and Nicki from the Jane Slade project and Sean will be coming into talk with the pupils to give some of the history behind the boat. Our work will be presented at the Carn Glaze Caverns for parents to go and see on Friday 17th March (more information to follow!)

HOMEWORK

Daily reading with your child

For our creative writing session on Monday, the author has asked if the pupils could bring in any objects they have linked to the sea such as shells, stones, drift wood etc.

Please complete one activity from the homework grid

Please complete the 'All about me' form if you haven't already done so

Year 6 pupils: please complete the maths and grammar and punctuation homework- we will go through the homework together so if there is anything you are unsure about we can talk through it next week.

This week's photos

Sorry- no new photos this week...there will be lots of new photos next week from all our creative work!

What your child will be learning next week

English – Writing diary entries and descriptions of Polruan...and writing with a real author!

Maths- Times table work

Science – We will work on our scientific observation skills

Music – Writing and performing sea shanties

Forest School and PSHE – Working as a team
