Dear Parents/Carers and Children,

With Christmas nearing, our thoughts are beginning to turn to this year's Christmas play and other Christmas events (please see overleaf for information about outfits for the performance). On Tuesday next week, linked to our 'Celebration of Light' theme, pupils will be making willow lanterns for the Christmas lantern parade in Fowey- it would be great to see lots of you there. There is a letter coming with more information about the event.

There have been more brilliant pieces of homework linked to our light theme which are all being put into a 'Celebration of Light' corner. The pupils have also been working hard with Miss Edwards on their electricity science work and will be making lighting up Christmas decorations in the run up to Christmas.
